Dear Maah,

So, we finally graduated huh? You ^{know} what? I'll miss that place because that place (Gahrpage!!! ^{me...}) is where we really started our real relationship. Remember the times when we go to dances and the best part seems to always come at around (ahhmm!!!) 10:00, just before the dance is over. Remember our steps, remember behind ~~sex~~ ^{oops! me...} ed class, remember behind the girls lockeroom where you took so long that I almost got caught by my brother Rolly. Gosh, the way Marinette says those were the days, well those that I just talked about were my "D" ~~days~~ ^{days}. Oh besides Gahr, how about when we started noticing each other. Remember the talent show, that's the first thing that's on my mind because that's how every one started getting to know me since I humiliated myself. How about Krott's busy farm for our graduation day??? Do you still remember the lines you used on me just to be able to ride with me on a ride. Boy, you were a tuff business-man to deal with because you don't give up ^{hee hee...}, but, I liked it (even though I nearly threw-up) How about getting mushy a little bit more, okay? okay? How about Teri's party ^{low first kiss?}. Do you remember?? Boy!!! I do!!! That was one of the unforgettable nights or should I say "A Night to Remember?" That night was being too huh!, but it seemed so unmemorable! You know WHY? Gosh, I could go on with remember, remember, and remember. You know Norrie? It's feels good that I've shared w/you those moments because it would never been the same or more better if it wasn't you all this time. I just hope we stay strong and more stable, especially for these coming years. We will sure miss it. I know that I will miss you very much and only God knows how much. Just remember that wherever corner of earth you may be that my love for you will never equal anyone else's. I don't want to go and I sure don't want you to go but like I said in my quote of arm for Mr. Baca "No pain, No gain" which is very true. Just always remember that when you leave to always remember this promise you'll never erase it from your head, no matter

EXCITEMENT MOUNTS ... BEAUTY SHINES ...

A whistle and the kick-off started the 1984 Homecoming Game. The crowd cheered on our mighty football team. As the guys fought on the field, the students and alumni prepared for the half-time excitement. Who would become the 1984 Homecoming Queen? With a look up in the sky our question was answered. A plane flew overhead flashing our new queens name, Melanie Sotomayer. But the excitement was just beginning. The following night we would all come together again for the Homecoming Dance.

Scott Shimel, Scott Piper, Frank Bectan, Mike Low, Frank Williams, Thomas Larity, Guillermo Guillen, Eric Walters, Jamal Harrison, Robert Ford.

Gahr's '84 Varsity Football Team had a lot to overcome this year. A coaching change and very few returning lettermen proved a challenge to the team. New Head Coach Darrell Walsh had his work cut out for him. Early in the year the team motto was selected, "The team comes first."

The Gladiators over all record was 3-7. Their wins included an outstanding upset game against Artesia for this year's possession of the Ronald Waldrum Memorial Plaque and a heart-break loss to Paramount at Homecoming.

This season gave many Sophomores and Juniors a chance to play on the varsity level. It is hoped that the experience will give Gahr an edge next season.

Pep Squad Promotes Spirit

From the beginning of try-outs until the closing of the school year, the pep squad puts forth many hours of hard work and dedication. Working towards the betterment of Gahr High they promote much pride and spirit. Working with Ms. Graham, their new advisor, the girls spend many hours in practice preparing cheers and chants for various games and competitions. An important part in the unity and boisterous spirit of the student body lies greatly upon the Pep Squad's shoulders!

ASB is on the go this year. The ASB cabinet is there to get students involved in school and carry out the needs and wants of the student body. It took three very special boys, seven very special girls, and two very patient advisors, to set the pace for the 1985 school year. These twelve people are none other than the Senior Class Cabinet.

Now to start off with, these are not ordinary people. Nope! They're exciting, unique, energetic, yep, you get the picture. We are talking about a FUN group of people. This group could also be called the instigators, because they are always looking for a way to stir up some wild and crazy times.

Don't get the wrong impression. The Senior Cabinet takes on a lot of responsibility. Along with that comes a lot of hard work, and making major decisions which affect the senior class.

Under the guidance of their advisors, Mrs. Ware and Mrs. Lau, these fearless, young leaders tackled the ups and downs of the 1985 school year, and their work was deeply appreciated.

The Prom Produceers

The Class of 1986, had two unique advisors, Mr. Baca and Mrs. Meadows. The Junior Cabinet along with Mr. Baca and Mrs. Meadows lifted the spirit of the 1986 class. They worked hard to keep this spirit going throughout the whole year, and were very successful. They set an example on how much fun and spirit you can produce with a little effort.

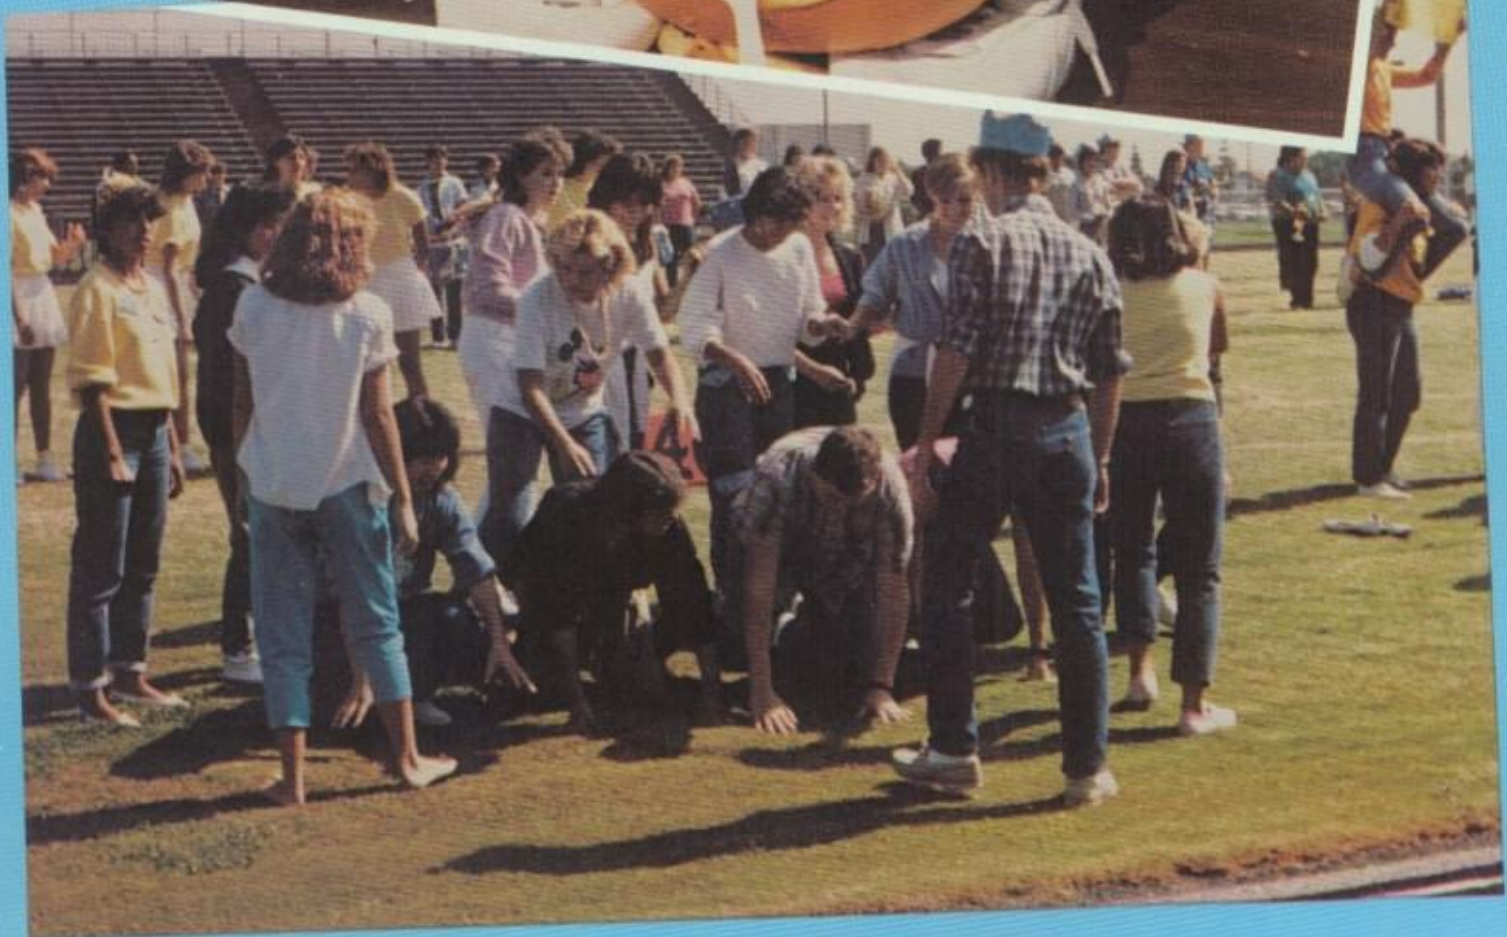

Every year the Junior Cabinet must take on a very special job. That is planning the prom. Not only do they have to find a suitable place, they have to negotiate a resonable price. This year they really out did themselves, and the 1985 Prom was held at the brand new, very elegant Long Beach Hyatt. We thank the Junior Cabinet for an unforgettable Prom.

Out of the Blue and into Activities

Pioneer Days is a once a year event. It is a time to remember the history of the west and relive some of the past. This year at Gahr, Pioneer Days were during October from the eighth to the thirteenth. The week was filled with class competition, our stomachs were filled with Chili, and our jail was filled with Gahr's own outlaws. Our band marched in the Artesia parade on Saturday, October the thirteenth, in which they placed fourth.

Community

On November 29, 1984, Gahr held its annual Winter Blood Drive. It was the most successful winter drive Gahr has ever had. Many more students and faculty donated blood than ever before. 110 units of blood were collected, almost reaching the goal of 120. Gahr is very proud that they can help others. This year Gahr students and faculty put lots of happy faces on little children, as they presented them with the new, unwrapped toys donated at the Toys for Tots dance. Gahr also participated in the canned food drive. 4,034 pounds of food were collected at the drive. Gahr students helped many families have an extra special Thanksgiving.

Various booths were set up for everyone's enjoyment. Many clubs and organizations at Gahr sponsored their booths. The band played a major part in the carnival because it is their prime fund raiser. This year the school came together to provide a successful carnival not only for the school, but for the community as well.

On March 8 a new tradition was started at Gahr this year. Students experienced something new and exciting, the out of the ordinary MORP occurred for the first time. The gym was decorated with gaudy fluorescent streamers, balloons, and bizarre decorations which added to the fun filled evening. The theme of the dance was portrayed through the song "The Bird" by the Time. 'MORP' is PROM spelled backwards, and that's exactly what it was. Barry Sutherland was first to be crowned "MR MORP", king of the dance. The students wore jeans, t-shirts, and sweats, the basic kickback clothes. A meal at McDonalds or Shakeys was the place to go. The Junior Cabinet came up with the idea to promote the Prom. MORP wasn't just another dance, it was a unique evening with the largest turnout of all the dances.

Out of the blue and into Seniors

After four years of togetherness, our Senior Year came to an end. They told us that it would come sooner than we expected, but did we believe them? Now graduation is just over the horizon and the good times, the bad times, and security of high school will soon become memories. Yet it is time we realize that there is a bigger, challenging and exciting world to face, a world we will face with optimism, and courage.

Class Cabinets

The Freshmen Class Cabinet did an outstanding job raising money this year. They raised approximately $1,000 by selling candy and hosting a dance in December. They participated in the carnival where they had a basketball booth. When the freshmen advisor Mr. Elizalde was asked to describe the Freshmen class in one word, he described them as being "spirited."

For the class of 1987, this was a very successful year. To start things off they had a candy sale to help raise money for the Christmas dance which they hosted. The money they raised also went toward the prom for the Class of 1986, which they say will be the best prom ever.

The class of 1987 rings feature the traditional gladiator on one side and an optional griffin on the other. The symbol, chosen by the cabinet, is new and different. It breaks the traditional symbol used in the past years.

The school year of 1984-1985 was a very busy year for the Jr. Cabinet. Their hard work resulted in a very nice Sock Hop and quite a few beach parties. In addition to all of this, they are reigning champions of the "bug push." In the bug push the object of the game was to see which class could push the bug or Volkswagon to the end of the field first. They raised money for the prom by selling items such as buttons, bumper stickers, candy and also sponsored a pancake breakfast. They did very well in the sales and the class of 1985 had one of the best proms ever.

Out of the 84-85 Varsity Football season came a strong and united team. There were no captains, but with the support of each other and a motto of 'The Team Comes First', they were able to go out there and win three out of ten of their games. All in all, it was a pretty good season for the Varsity Football team.

"GAHR ROOFIN' CO." TAKES CIF ■

CIF competition is nothing new at Gahr, but this year, the Gladiators were in rare form. After several weeks of hard work and practice, the dedication and coaching skills of Brian Gimmiaro and Kent Scanlon were obvious. Ranked Number One in the nation by several national magazines, the Varsity Volleyball team proved devastating to each team they faced.

After pounding the competition through league play and CIF semi-finals, it was announced that the team to beat was Corona del Mar. The Gahr girls passed, set, and spiked through three tough games and were ultimately victorious, defeating Corona del Mar 15-5, 15-13, 15-12.

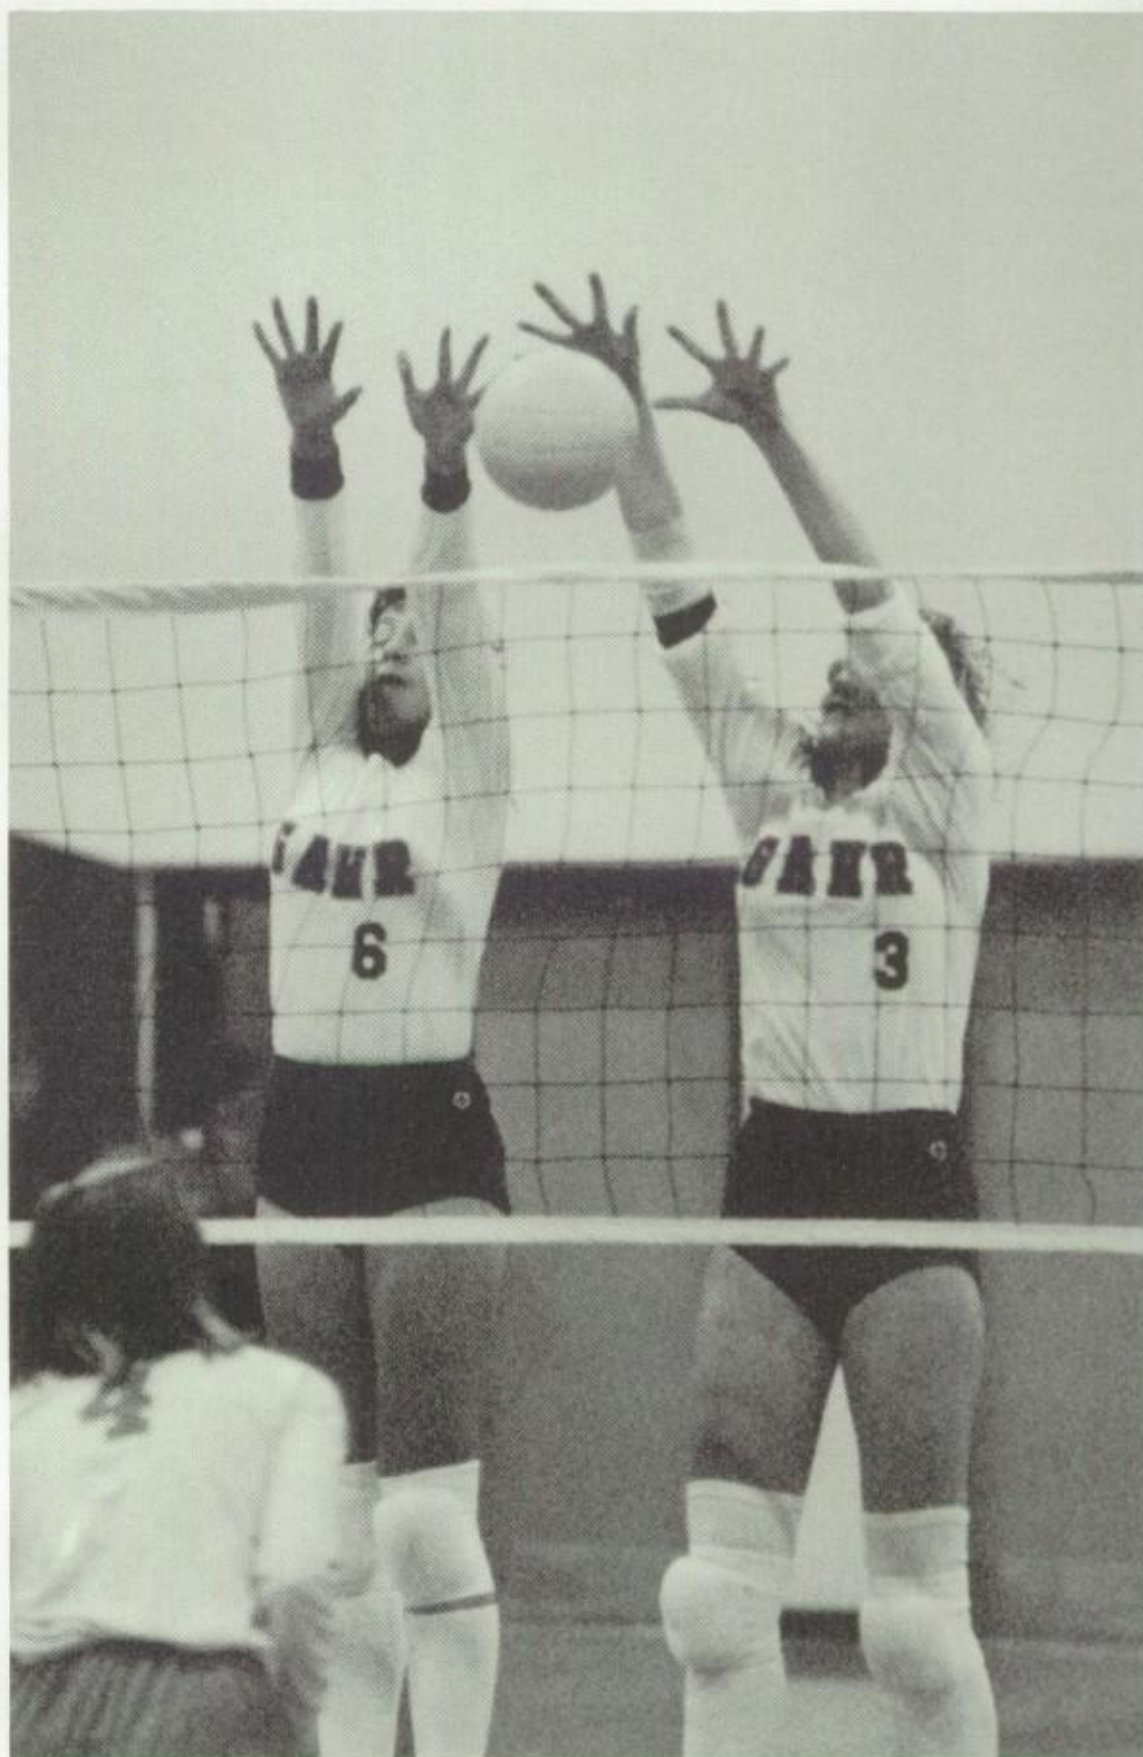

GAHR captured six of the twelve available all-league spots, including co-players of the year, Joyce Koehn and Trisonya Thompson.

Domination of the CIF Big-5 play-offs led the Gladiators to placing four players on the all So.-Cal team, Cindy Cox, Tara Cross, Trisonya Thompson, and Joyce Koehn.

The Gladiators are very proud of this team and proved their loyalty last season by sending large crowds of cheering fans to all play-off games. The girls on the team showed their spirit by sporting their GAHR sweatsuits at every given chance.

Many of these girls are seniors and will be going on to play college level volleyball next year. Two Gahr players have been named as prospective Olympic players, Trisonya Thompson and Tara Cross.

Only two returning players will be back to defend Gahr's title next year, Junior Tara Cross and Sophomore Jill Johnson. But a very strong J.V. team should be able to fill the holes in Gahr's 1985 line-up. GOOD LUCK GIRLS!!

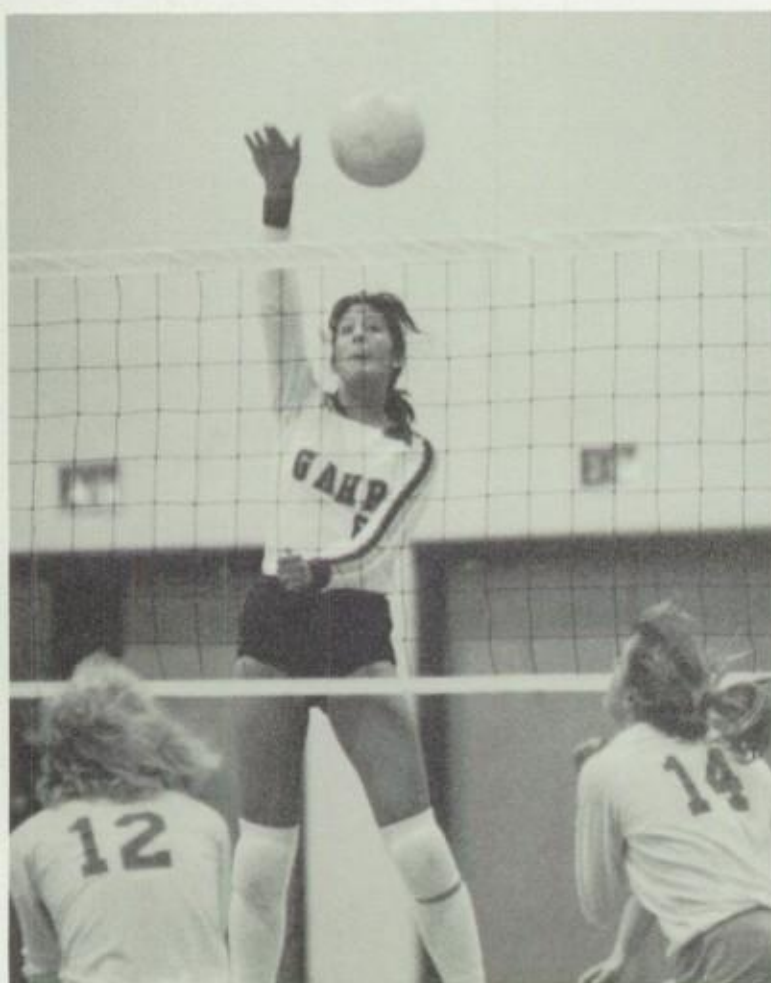

The Gahr Roofin' Co. in action!

Trisonya Thompson slices another one.

Mary Crowser rises above the rest to put the opponent in place.

Ana Jewell concentrates on making a good pass.

The varsity Basketball team had their work cut out for them when the season started last year. Playing in the San Gabriel Valley League with two of the most pre-dominant teams in the state wasn't easy, but the Glads made the best of it, finishing third in league over arch-rival Cerritos. This was the second season at Gahr for Varsity coach Stewart, and the first time the Gladiators have taken a play-off spot in several years. After a heartbreaking 51-50 loss to Lynwood in double overtime, the team bounced back to beat Cerritos, Downey, and Warren in the second round.

Chris Smart reaches for the tip-off.

Jim "Boozer" Brandyberry pulls down a rebound for the Glads.

Eric Powers comes out of the blue for two points.

J.V. In Action!!!

The 1985 Boys Basketball team had quite a successful season with 14 wins and 7 losses. The team agreed that their victory over Cerritos in the second round was the highlight of the season. Coach Kent Scanlon was instrumental in bringing this young team together for a successful season. As captain of the team, Danny Ruiz was a very inspirational leader. This team shows great potential for next season, and they will soon be seen playing at the varsity level.

J.V. Wrestlers Go All The Way

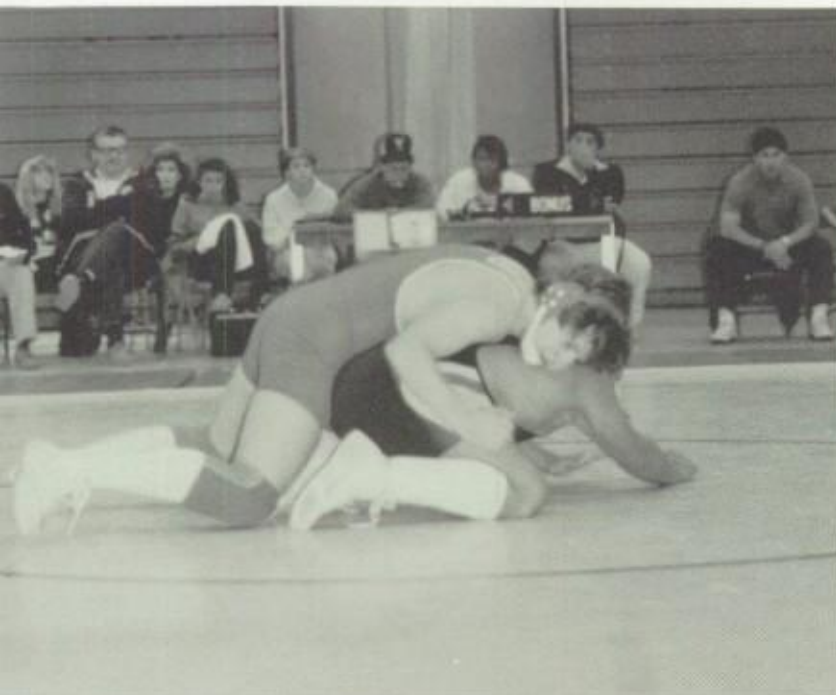

The Gahr J.V. Wrestling team had a very successful year in 1984. This J.V. Wrestling team was the best team we have had in years. This year, they accomplished many things. What a team Gahr had this year! Varsity Soccer in '85 was a definite success. Coach Keno led the team to victory. In league, they tied for third place. Less goals made it through Luis Saenz and Francisco De La Trinidad than any other goalies in the league. Leonard Hayes and Eric Bice were chosen Most Valuable Players by their teammates. This team spent many hours practicing and preparing for competition. Because they strove for perfection, they were successful. J.V. Changes Their Pace

There were many new faces on the 1985 Junior Varsity Softball Team. The girls welcomed their new coach Laura Brunson a former Gahr Alumni. Along with a new coach the team had several "New" discoveries who added fresh talent to the team. In no time coach Brunson had whipped the team into shape. It was a combination of "Old" experience and "New" talent that made the team another Top Quality Gahr Softball Team. Gahr has always been ranked high in comparison to other High School Teams, and this year was certainly no different.

ROUGH, TOUCH CREAM PUFFS

No one could have known the final outcome of this year's Powder Puff Game. No one knew who would be crowned king at halftime, and no one could have guessed who on a cold, wet, rainy night in February, would win as the Senior-soph and Junior-frosh teams went head-to-head in the 1985 Powder Puff Game. But the Senior-soph team must have had a pretty good idea.

The outlook wasn't good for the Junior-frosh from the beginning and after a very muddy first half, the score was locked at 0-0.

During halftime the crowd was entertained by a number of acrobatic cheerleaders dressed up for the occasion. Jude Alcala was crowned king, and sat at the throne with his court, Senior princes Chris Smart and Josue Cervantes, Junior prince Danny Ruiz, Sophomore prince Kevin Kent and Freshman prince Roger Pavon.

Then, in the second half, a dominating Senior-Soph team scored two unanswered touchdowns to defeat the Junior-Frosh 12-0.

■ Shooting For Their Best Shot

Since the doors first opened, much has changed at Gahr, but not the goals of the Cadets. From 1965 to 1985 good citizenship, patriotism, scholastic achievement, and teamwork have always been the trademarks of this group of young people. Classes in courtesy, military history, disaster training and first aid are some of the subjects taught in the year. The Corps has always tried to live by it's motto of "Essayons" — Let Us Try. The class is taught by John P. Vertido, a 1978 graduate of Gahr and a officer in the United States Army. This year the Rifle team participated in the carnival by being in charge of the "Spill the Milk" booth. Another interesting fact is that this year the Rifle team has their first and only girl as a member. She is Leilua Malesala. Congratulations!!!

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club is a large and well known group at Gahr. The members, not necessarily being of the Spanish background or decent, group together to form a large, productive club. They've had various activities to unify the group, such as potlucks and parties, picnics, and bowling outings. They have raised money through a very successful candy sale, a dart booth at the carnival, coupon books for various outings, and they put on the Sadie Hawkins Dance for the first time. For their school service project they held an aluminum can drive. The Spanish Club, under the supervision of Ms. Jones, adds greatly to the unity of students in Gahr.

Performing Arts

Madrigals work very hard.

The vocal Music Performing Arts Club danced, sang and acted their way to popularity within the school and community. They entertained us with the Christmas Concert, Talent Show and Spring Musical. Many, many hours were put into practicing so they could produce and perform top quality shows. This is a top-notch group of people whose talents and entertainment was enjoyed by all.

Choir shows their sweet smiles.

CSF has worked very hard this year under the supervision of advisors Mrs. Diane Lau and Mrs. Kris Tanaka to encourage academic excellence and raise scholarship money for outstanding senior members. The fundraisers included a candy sale, a raffle, and a hamburger stand at the carnival. At the same time, the officers (Yolanda Salazar — President, Anna Chan — Vice President, Michelle LeBlanc — Secretary, Arlene Bulos — Treasurer, and Ann Barlow — Historian) planned several fun CSF gatherings including a Christmas party, a picnic, a trip to UCLA and a banquet.

Chinese Club

The Chinese club was formed quite a few years ago to keep Chinese customs alive, to share these customs with friends and help Chinese students stay friends. Gahr's team attended several large scale competitions as well as entering many essay writing contests. Their skill and knowledge enabled them to represent Gahr in the best possible way. The Academic Competition Team was a big success and looks like it will be around for years to come.

The name says it all!

French Club

All went well for the French Club in 1985. Advised by Ms. Ramsey, the group spent the year raising money for their activities and senior scholarships, having fun and getting a taste of French culture. They did all of that by having a French cheese tasting party, a candy sale, an ice skating party at Christmas and a carnival game booth.

Topping off their wonderful year was their banquet at an exquisite French restaurant where they sampled some delicious escargots (snails). The enthusiastic officers of this organization include: Anna Chan — President, Michelle Leach — Vice President, Lisa Chatterton — Secretary, Rhonda Ratchford — Treasurer, Jem Hardison — Director of Publicity, and Kevin Umeda — Historian.

They work very hard, yet are never too busy to help out their fellow students. This year in addition to helping in the library, Media Guild participated in the Canned Food Drive, the Carnival, Cupids' Mailbox and tempted us all with their Chocolate Easter Egg Sale. Their time and efforts are greatly appreciated by the students and faculty at Gahr.

They meet approximately once a month to discuss and plan certain activities that take place within the school year, the largest activity being the organization and production of the annual Powder Puff game and dance. They originated from the ASB, working to spread school news. They report back to their second period classes directly after the meetings to share with the students the upcoming events of the school year. This offers a much broader realm of communication reaching all, leaving no one out!

Out of the blue and the end is here

They said the time would fly by, but we didn't believe them. Now the weeks have turned to months, and the months have turned to years. Whether you're a graduating Senior leaving the security of high school, or a Freshman, Sophomore or a Junior who'll be returning in three months for another year, the fact is, it's hard saying goodbye.

Tying Up Loose Ends

The school year's almost over, and our excitement and anticipation of summer is growing. But before we can throw in the towel, there's always those end of the year things to tie up. Studying for finals ... Cleaning out a year's worth of garbage from your locker ... paying for the geometry book your dog ate ... registering for next year's classes ... planning your summer ... getting your grades ... and waiting to hear the last and final bell that ends the school year and begins summer. You may be leaving Gahr for good or just until next year, but either way you will be leaving with a year full of memories.

To: Melanie Lauren Sotomayor

Dear Melanie,

A part of your life has come to an end, another part of your life is beginning. You have experienced both the highs and lows of happiness and success. Lauren, you're a very special woman with a wealth of talent that is yet to be realized. You are sensitive, creative, compassionate, and your future will become a blend of these very special traits. God has blessed you with these gifts, use them wisely with grace and through courage. We all learn from the past and prepare for the future. Remember the past lessons and apply those lessons towards your future challenges.

Lauren, the times when you thought you were alone, you were not. The times when you cried, we also cried. The times when you rejoiced, we rejoiced. Lauren you have never been alone. You're a very special person! God Bless you and Care for you always, what happens. Well, here it is remember that I don't want to think of anything for you today but only for the things that will make you come back!!! (I mean that so very much!!!)

We Love You, MOM and DAD

DEDICATION

To the class of.....

Good Ron, I love you so much that I wish yours and my feelings towards each other will never ^{matter} change no matter what the situation is. I am so scared for the coming future I just hope you understand. But whatever it is that the future holds for us I must accept. So Ron, if we do fade (which I really hope we don't) just always remember that that special feeling I have for you will always have a place in my heart. We sure are taking a lot of chances but I know that if, like I said, we stay strong and take that I know God will grant us a reward we both deserve. I know that you don't believe in this "meaning for each other" but I would like you to remember this "also" If you love someone, set it free. If it comes back to you, it's yours. If it doesn't then it wasn't meant to be!!! But don't really think about that. I'm even sorry for writing it. Just remember that when you go change anything you practically want, just don't change the love that we both HAVE!

And special thanks to: Mrs. Adams, Mr. Hughes, Mr. McKee for their help and support.

On case you forget their names

Dear Ronny,

Well, this is the last time I'll be writing in your yearbook. How sad! I really want to thank you for being such a good friend to me all of these years. You've been a very special friend to me even though I haven't really shown it! There are so many things that I will remember that we did together!!! Remember "Cujo!!"? How about when we watched "Barbara Broadcast" at my house? I'll never forget those times, and I'll never forget you and your silly jokes. You have made my high school years more special by just being there to make me laugh! I hope that whatever you choose to do in life brings you all of the success and all of the happiness that you deserve! Do only what is best for you! We're going our separate ways, but remember that I'll always be there if you need a friend!

Love, Monica Martine

Ron,

Oh well, our last year together is almost up and we'll all have to be going our own separate ways!! I know you've probably forgot, but I can still remember how you and I always ~~you~~ ^{used} to ride the pine our freshmen year on the basketball team. It was kind of frustrating, but at least we were a winning team. I'm glad that you and I have become friends, and I hope you'll be successful in everything you do.

Friend Always,
Andie

Kennedy

Ron,
It's finally over! It's been cool having you as a friend. Good luck with your future. I'll see you around.
